For the inauguration of its new space, gallery l'inlassable is pleased to present BOUQUET DE MARS, gathering 22 young painters from the Beaux-Arts de Paris, opening on March 24, at 18 rue Dauphine!*

A hand, a flower, a bouquet to offer,
To be plucked from the grass, or to be sought under water,
It's a choice of colour, of form, of material,
Canvases, frames, and the smell of varnish,
It is a snowy tree, or a green plant,
Cherries in a bowl, slices of butter,
It is a pleated white sheet, golden dragonflies
A hat on the head, frantic dancers,
Concrete buildings, in the middle of a carpet,
It's a brush stroke, it's a firework,
A large window, a view of the Seine,
It's on the top floor of the Beaux-arts in Paris,
An artists' studio, with young painters,
Who have met in a gallery,
To exhibit here, tireless paintings
And form together, this beautiful bouquet of March.

Rewritten from the Brazilian song « Águas de Março » (The waters of March) written in 1972 by Antônio Carlos Jobim
